It is the end of Apple as it is currently known - to remove viable ability products, to interfere with natural work, to not follow through on common sense and dedicated effort, both within Apple and with third party devs.

However, Apple will be required to release ownership of NeXT technology, product, personnel, and effect - so that the NeXT Inc. company is independent and as stated above, NeXT Inc. 2017.
