A Proposed Dialectic Among Several Standpoints To Various Effective Outcomes! In Particular, For And Of The United States, A Nation, The People, And Its Democratic Republic Nature

Kevin A. Sensenig Draft 1.06-L 2026 August 19 – August 29

The following 3 points form a dialectic triangle; this may be a key dialectic for 2026 United States and Ongoing. Each of these and their dialogue and dialectic with the others forms a brilliant mode of inquiry and sound ontological, epistemological, individual, group, cultures, collective, community, society, multitype reality. Anyone is invited to explore this, and to develop insight and action or expression or silent participation; and all these indicate and point to and framework and develop and support in and as a totality spatial-temporal-semantic 3-space and n-space reality and multifaceted reality, boundless.

And Four Mutually Supportive And Integrative Dialectic Principles Toward State, True Democracy And Republic, Integrative, Equality, Types, Liberation, The People, And Total Views

I would incorporate elements of dialectic materialism within the following framework: a dialectic with the fusion of the abstract and the concrete, this the real world(s), and dialectic, with any points seen or observed in that real world, and what it points to, boundless.

A dialectic with Marxism, expansive, innermost, profound; Thomas Paine original type thought; and Freedom Liberation Equality USA existential realism.

A dialectic of freedom, liberation, and the particular moment. And its independence and interdependence. And its social, societal, cultural, resource(s), ecosystem, and individual, participation facets and fact(s) and realism and benefits. And its philosophical or spiritual practice, theory, praxis, and reality.

A dialectic of ancient and modern thought and their recognition of equality, participant, realistic, social, spiritual, religious, or logical reality and culture – expansive and deep.

May include: dimension read to an existential cosmos and any Absolute, as one may interpret it. Right here, this moment, this universe, this and that moment and fact and facet, each moment and facet and fact and this and that.
